

“Effective Presentation Skills: preparation, delivery and applause”

About the Program

As one climbs the corporate ladder, presentations become a necessity which enables one to climb higher. Coupled with other skills, the ability to create an impact through presentations can leave a favorable impression on the audience, including the ones who matter.

Who is it for?

Managers and Individual contributors with work experience up to 12 years.

Duration

Pre-workshop mail, 1-2 days live training with practice sessions and videos provided to participants

Program modules

Module 1: The Need for Presentations

Module 2: Understanding the Audience

Module 3: Preparing the Content

Module 4: Engaging the Audience

Module 5: Structuring the Presentation

Program outcomes

Improve verbal and non- verbal communication skills

Create compelling power point presentations

Improve connect with and get your idea across to the audience

Prime Meridian Consulting India Private Limited is a company incorporated with the purpose of “building leaders everywhere”. The company deliver trainings and consultancy to help people perform at world-class levels at every level of Organization.

Participant’s Feedback

- The delivery process was very comprehensive and effective. The session was an eye opener and very knowledgeable
- The delivery process was very relevant and is going to help me a lot in my future presentations
- Very much relevant and helping to present yourself and your ideas
- It was good and at the same time very crisply designed. Insightful, informative, transformational
- It was done with appropriate examples and brought to a level where people volunteered to participate with full enthusiasm
- Very practically explained and full of knowledge
- It was very good. Learnt lots of things which we will incorporate in our presentations
- Was up to the mark and the whole purpose has been achieved
- Precise, knowledgeable, very much required to nourish and develop the skill set